The Company

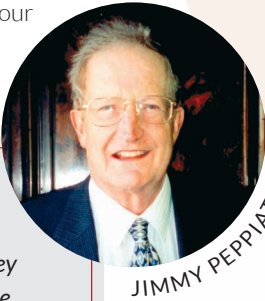

Charles Henry Peppiatt set-up this business in 1903 on Haverstock Hill, NW3 at the start of the glorious, but all-too-short, Edwardian age. There were fewer telephones, fewer cars and not a single television. Not even H.G. Wells had foreseen the digital revolution. It was an age of innocence, ink wells, gas lights and thriving local London communities.

Two world wars, numerous financial crises and the more recent onslaught of technology created a very different world. And yet the values that Charles Henry Peppiatt passed on to his grandson Jimmy, and that Jimmy passed on to the team, remain as true now as in 1903.

Charles Henry Peppiatt is now a modern business, working in a modern age. But, we read Jimmy's words every morning to remind us that however many properties we rent, sell or manage, our real purpose is to make our clients happy.

Ethos

Estate agents tend to make the same mistakes again and again. They believe they are dealing with buildings when they should actually be looking after the people. At Charles Henry Peppiatt, we put the people first. This isn't just a marketing slogan, but it has been the key to our success since Charles Henry Peppiatt started the property business in 1903. What makes us different from other estate agents is that we don't just offer 'services' to clients but go out of our way to serve their needs as people.

Our stress-free lettings service

1 Free Market Appraisal

We will provide you with a FREE market appraisal and advise on any work which may be required to ensure your property attracts quality tenants paying the highest achievable rental figure. We can, also, advise on steps which may need to be taken to comply with the 'ever-changing' rules and regulations prior to offering the property 'to let'.

2 Web Advertising

Your property will be instantly available on our bang up to date website – www.ch-p.co.uk – with floor plans, photography and location maps. Your details will also be automatically sent to relevant applicants and also loaded onto rightmove, zoopla, primelocation and onthemarket – the four leading property portals – for maximum coverage.

3 Marketing and Advertising

First impressions count and the first thing potential tenants see before they even pass the front door is the photographs of your property. We spend time, use professional cameras and skilled photography to capture the best pictures that will make your home rent quickly. Distinctive 'To Let' boards will be arranged by agreement with the Landlord prior to marketing.

4 Referencing

All prospective tenants are fully referenced by an independent agency, who will check the tenants identity, employment status, credit history and also gain references from previous landlords if applicable. Only tenants who pass our vigorous referencing checks and who have been approved by the landlord will be offered the property.

5 Tenancy Agreement

Your property will be let on an Assured Shorthold Tenancy Agreement usually for a term or 6 months up to 36 months, which will run on a month to month basis following expiration of the fixed period. Longer and shorter initial terms can be arranged and this can be discussed further with the Agents if required. The tenancy agreement is an important document and provides the contract between landlord and tenant in which the different responsibilities are explained.

6 Inventory

We would instruct an independent inventory clerk to produce a full Inventory and Schedule of Condition of the property prior to the tenant moving in to record both the condition of the property and anything left in place including carpets and curtains etc. It is essential that an accurate record is taken as this can then be used to compare the condition at the end of the tenancy should a claim against the deposit need to be made.

7 Deposit

Since The Housing Act of 2004 came in to force in 2007, all deposits must be held in an approved Tenancy Deposit Scheme. We would collect the deposit – which by law is a maximum of 5 weeks rent – and forward it to the Deposit Protection Service. The deposit can then be used to off-set charges for breakages/damages or for rent arrears occurring during the term, if required.

8 Rent Arrears

The agent will inform the Landlord as soon as practically possible of any delay or default on the rent and will make best endeavours to obtain the arrears and advise further action if necessary. Rental income can be guaranteed via certain insurance policies which we can suggest, if necessary.

9 Landlord's Obligations

The Landlord has a duty under the Landlord and Tenant Act 1985 to keep the property in a good state of repair and to keep all wiring, plumbing, heating, electrical and gas appliances provided in safe and good working order. Legislation is continuously changing and Charles Henry Peppiatt can keep you up-to-date with all necessary obligations that apply.

10 Always Available

Within reason we can be available every day to assist with your queries.

"My partner and I recently moved to Camden thanks to the brilliant help of Ayda (and the CHP team)! She went above and beyond when working with us to make the move as seamless and stress free as possible, and was always knowledgeable and responsive when answering questions. Ayda was very approachable and it was nice to hear a friendly and familiar voice when going through the process. By far the best estate agent my partner or I have used in our many years of renting, would 100% use again and recommend!"

Andrew Dodds

"We recently bought a property through Charles Henry Peppiatt and have had the easiest experience as far as buying properties go! The Sales Manager and Director that we were liaising with were polite, professional and responsive. Above all, they were transparent; they kept us informed of the progress of the sale, any issues encountered and what they were doing to assist us in securing the purchase"

Priya Valentine

"Dealing with this Estate agency was very simply, a game changer. Not only did we purchase our dream house In Hadley Wood from them, they also had to sell our existing house in Southgate in order to get the whole transaction over the line in record time. They made it happen. Their approach and ability to overcome obstacles was proficient, professional and honest. Kadeem worked relentlessly for all the parties involved, his transparency, accessibility and perseverance to get the task at hand done was second to none. A truly focused and determined professional! It was a pleasure to do business with him and rest of the team at CH Peppiatts. Their slogan "Small enough to care, big enough to get results" is spot on. I would not hesitate to recommend this firm and Kadeem to anyone. Keep up the good work guys"
